TAKING CARE OF AN AGING PARENT
– is no different than –
TAKING CARE OF A KID.

FALSE.

They are definitely not your kid, and physical or behavioral issues can make things tougher.

Taking care of an elderly family member can be stressful, especially in addition to all of your other responsibilities. Add in Alzheimer’s or other health concerns, and it can be easy to feel overwhelmed. We can help.

Receive up to six hours of free help from experienced professionals who can:

- Assess your loved one in their current living situation and create a care-planning report
- Discuss ways to support your family member in their home
- Help plan and monitor in-home and facility care
- Review financial, legal and medical concerns to make referrals for long-term care, if needed
- Assist with locating respite care
- Provide care for the caregiver
