

Covered Behavioral Services

Mental Health treatment services such as:

- Outpatient mental health services, including assessment and counseling
- Evaluation and medication management services
- Psycho-social rehabilitation services
- Mental health targeted case management
- Telehealth (delivery of mental health-related services and information using telecommunications technologies)
- Peer Support Program
- Inpatient mental health services, which may be a free-standing psychiatric hospital instead of an acute care inpatient hospital setting.

Substance use disorder treatment services such as:

- Assessment
- Detoxification services
- Counseling treatment
- Medication assisted therapy
- Residential services, which may be provided in a chemical dependency treatment facility instead of an acute care inpatient hospital setting, including
 - » Detoxification services
 - » Substance use disorder treatment (including room and board)